Excerpt from the Charter of the Association:

Article 4 Purpose

(2) The Association has the purpose of promoting education. This should be achieved by establishing, implementing and advancing the concept of the European Business BaccaLaureate Diploma (EBBD), designated as "Europäisches Wirtschaftsabitur" in German, as a standardized and Europe wide acknowledged qualification. This is implemented by the Association through the following steps in particular:

- Attracting partners – in particular schools, school administrations and their representatives – and supporters in as many European countries as possible.
- Definition and description of the elements of the European Business BaccaLaureate Diploma
- Specification of the form of certification and procedure
- Development of procedures to assure standards
- Creation of a detailed skills description
- Public relations and information on the European Business BaccaLaureate Diploma
- Exchange of experiences between members
- Evaluation of the development process

Article 5 Membership

1. Members of the Association may include all private individuals or legal entities, who or which support the purpose of the Association.
2. The declaration of accession shall be delivered in writing to the Board of Directors, which decides on admission by majority vote.
3. The Association has ordinary, supporting and associated and honorary members.

Private persons, institutions and companies who want to support EBBD e.V. regularly, can become supporting members. They may attend annual general meetings but do not have voting rights.

Colleges and other educational institutions not accredited can become associated members. Associated members will be invited to the annual general meetings but do not have voting rights.

Accredited colleges and other accredited educational institutions have to be ordinary members. Ordinary members are obliged to foster the Association's purpose, particularly the establishment, implementation and further development of EBBD as a standardized and Europe wide acknowledged qualification within the limits of their resources.

The AGM can nominate honorary members. These members do not have voting rights.

Article 6 Revenues

2. Progressive membership fees are charged for supporting, associated and ordinary members.
3. Membership fees have to be paid unprompted to the Association until 28 February of each year.
4. The General Meeting decides on the amount of the membership fee by means of simple majority.

Article 7 Termination of membership

1. Membership shall be terminated in the following ways

- a) Death of a member
- b) Resignation of a member by virtue of a written statement to the Board of Directors until 30 November of the current calendar year taking effect in the following year
- c) Resolution of the General Meeting.
2. The obligation to pay the membership fee only ends at the end of the year in which a resignation declaration is made, or in the cases a) and c) immediately.
3. A member may be excluded for conduct damaging to the Association, by means of resolution of the General Meeting with a majority of three quarters of members attending such a meeting.
4. If a member is in arrears with payment of fees by more than one year, a written warning shall be issued by the Board of Directors.

I hereby declare my/our accession to the registered association European Business BaccaLaureate Diploma (EBBD) e.V. as
